FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

The norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding from age 14 onwards.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of Holy Comforter Parish, united in faith by God, nourished by Jesus through the Word and the Eucharist, and guided by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, believe that we are called to worship, formation, service and evangelization within our parish, our local communities and all those in need.

LITURGICAL NOTES

"And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts." This passage from Romans - the second reading - captures the essence of the message imparted to us today at Holy Mass. It consists of two parts: the soul's longing for God ("hope does not disappoint") and the satiation of that thirst ("poured out into our hearts"). The entrance antiphon alludes to the former with its opening statement, "My eyes are forever turned towards the Lord." The Responsorial Psalm then calls us to receive the life-giving waters of the love of God ("harden not your hearts"). The offertory antiphon more clearly lays out the message for us, saying that the ordinances of the Lord bring "joy to all hearts." Finally, the communion antiphon explicitly quotes the Gospel passage about the "spring within, welling up to eternal life." Loving God, therefore, and seeking to unite ourselves with Him through the regenerating waters of baptism, the lifegiving "waters" of grace through the sacramental life and prayer, and the joy of serving of our neighbor satisfies the infinite longings of the human soul. Unity with the Church and compassion for our brethren are the two doors of the gate to the narrow path. Tread it with the music of heaven in your heart!

FROM THE PASTOR

I WALK WITH JESUS, PART VIII

VERY REV. JOSEPH MARY LUKYAMUZI, V.F.

Jesus said to the devil: "You shall not put the Lord your God to the test"(Mt.4:7).

Continuing to walk with Jesus in the desert, the gospel of Matthew records that the devil took Jesus to the holy city and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. "If you are the Son of God," he said, "throw yourself down. For it is written: 'He will command his angels concerning you, and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'" Jesus answered him, "It is also written: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" (Mt. 4:5-7).

"Throw yourself down." Satan was thrown down from heaven, as the Lord said, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven" (Lk.10:18) He wishes to try to get Jesus to throw Himself down. And so, by tempting God, to be humiliated. The whole city will see it. "Look," the devil seems to say, "this is a better way to reign. Their hearts are Yours, if You only do it my way, not God's way." In this way, he hopes to get Jesus to strike His foot against a stone. Yet know Jesus is the cornerstone, rejected by the builders, who will build His Church from the Cross of suffering and humility.

The devil, of course, knows scripture. He knows the Messiah has the protection of the angels, should He desire their assistance. If Jesus summons His angels to save Him and bear Him up, then the devil wins. His sole ambition is to get this Nazarene to do his will. Notice, too, that the devil cannot bear to quote the rest of the text from Psalm 91: "You will tread upon the lion and cobra, The young lion and the serpent you will trample down". (vs. 13). These are metaphors for Satan and his followers. They are the lion, the cobra and the dragon, upon whom the Christ shall tread in victory. Jesus' reply is chaste and decisive, quoting Deuteronomy: "You shall not tempt the Lord your God". (6:16).

Jesus does not say, "you shall not tempt me," lest He give away His identity to the evil one. He simply asserts that no one can put God to the test by rash actions. Satan started his temptation with the words, "If you are the Son of God." Now that's a very clever way to tempt someone. Satan tried to play with our tendency to be boastful. He wants to take advantage of our "pride of life." The devil used Scripture to try to convince Jesus to test God with a foolish act! Sometimes friends or associates will present attractive and convincing reasons why you should try something you know is wrong. They may even find Bible verses that seem to support their viewpoint.

Listening to Jesus carefully he is saying to us; all good deeds must arise out of prudence and trust in divine providence. We must not foolishly tempt God. In this case, we must not voluntarily throw ourselves into danger and then appeal for God's help. No one is permitted to put their life in danger when there is a recourse that is born of the greater good. God will make it known when it is time to give one's life for Him. Then, and only then, will grace be given unto a holy death, be it from another (martyrdom, hopefully) or from natural causes. It is foolish to recognize danger or temptation and think that we will somehow be exempt from the consequences if we linger. If we believe Scriptures warnings concerning temptation, we will surely flee. The only real protection that we have is the approach taken by Joseph when he was tempted by Potiphar's wife. "...and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out" (Genesis 39:12) (To be continued.)
