Dear Parents,

All classes for 2nd grade through High School will be held between the Masses, from 9:15 to 10:15, on the lower level of the church with the exception of those using the online curriculum.

Classes meet mostly, all Sundays. A calendar of Formation and Sacramental Preparation Class dates will be available on the first day of classes. For your planning purposes, the first day of class for K-1 through High School will be Sunday, October 1, 2020 with the last day of class on Sunday, May 23, 2021.

We will be using Sophia Institute Press curriculum “Spirit of Truth” for K–High School. Kindergarten – 1st grade will be taught online, with the parents as the catechists. The digital version of Spirit of Truth mirrors the classroom version, facilitating an easy transition to classroom as the pandemic situation evolves. It is a classical teaching approach to the Sacraments and Teachings of our Glorious Church. I am looking forward to the 2020 – 2021 season of the Children’s & High School Christian Formation and I expect it to be another successful year with God’s grace. God bless you as we start a new season of Christian Formation at the Catholic Church of the Holy Comforter.

Under Mary’s Mantle,

Melinda Wells

Director of Religious Education
